STATEMENT OF FACTS

The September 27, 2013 Incident

10. On September 27, 2013, at approximately 6:25 a.m., Plaintiff was sitting on the bench on the subway platform at the Union Square subway station, New York, NY.

11. Plaintiff was sitting normally on the bench, and had not done anything remotely lewd or inappropriate.

12. Defendant POLICE OFFICER CASTILLO approached Plaintiff and asked Plaintiff to follow him to the transit police precinct in the subway station, and Plaintiff did so.

13. On information and belief, POLICE OFFICER LOPEZ was with POLICE OFFICER CASTILLO.

14. While Defendant POLICE OFFICER CASTILLO was speaking with Plaintiff, another person - on information and belief a civilian named Moises Perez - was also present, was making faces at Plaintiff like a clown, and appeared to be deranged and unstable.

15. Once at the precinct POLICE OFFICER CASTILLO told Plaintiff that someone had seen Plaintiff masturbating on the subway platform.

16. Plaintiff told POLICE OFFICER CASTILLO that this was completely untrue, and

Plaintiff told POLICE OFFICER CASTILLO, in sum and substance, “if you believe this asshole then that’s what you are” (i.e., if POLICE OFFICER CASTILLO believed the deranged and unstable man, who was an asshole, then POLICE OFFICER CASTILLO was an asshole as well).

17. In retaliation for referring to POLICE OFFICER CASTILLO as an asshole, POLICE OFFICER CASTILLO then arrested Plaintiff.

18. Plaintiff was then placed into a holding cell for some time, and then taken to Manhattan Central Booking.

19. Plaintiff was held at Manhattan Central Booking until approximately 11:00 or 11:30 p.m., when he was arraigned and released.

20. Plaintiff was falsely charged with one count of Public Lewdness and one count of Exposure of a Person.

21. The Criminal Court Complaint was signed by Officer CASTILLO that was lodged against Plaintiff stated as follows:

I am informed by Moises Perez of an address known to the District Attorney’s Office, that he observed the defendant with his naked penis outside of his clothing on a bench inside the subway station. I am further informed by Mr. Perez that he observed the defendant making an up and down rubbing motion consistent with masturbation as an unknown woman walked in front of the defendant.

22. These allegations are lies.

23. Plaintiff’s penis was never outside of his clothing while he was at the subway station.

24. Plaintiff did not make any sort of motion like that described in the Criminal Court complaint.

25. On information and belief neither Officer CASTILLO nor Lieutenant LABELLA - who is listed on the police paperwork as the “supervisor on scene” - did anything to try to verify whether Plaintiff was engaged in lewd conduct inside the subway station, such as watching Plaintiff themselves (either in person or via video surveillance), or speaking to other individuals who did not appear to be deranged and unstable.

26. Plaintiff accepted an Adjournment in Contemplation of Dismissal (“ACD”), and the charges of Public Lewdness and Exposure of a Person have been dismissed in its entirety.

The June 19, 2014 Incident

27. On June 19, 2014, at approximately 6:35 a.m., Plaintiff was sitting on the subway at the Union Square subway station, New York, NY.

28. Plaintiff and his possessions were occupying only one seat.

29. Plaintiff was approached by two plainclothes police officers, one male (Defendant JOHN DOE #1, who, on information and belief, was Defendant POLICE OFFICER ROCA) and one female (on information and belief Defendant POLICE OFFICER ESCALERA).

30. JOHN DOE #1 told Plaintiff to get up, and Plaintiff got up.

31. JOHN DOE #1 and ESCALERA told Plaintiff to get off the train with them and come with them to the transit police precinct in the subway station, and Plaintiff did so.

32. At the precinct, JOHN DOE #1 and ESCALERA asked Plaintiff for identification, which Plaintiff provided.

33. JOHN DOE #1 and ESCALERA asked Plaintiff if he had ever been arrested, and Plaintiff said no.

34. JOHN DOE #1 and ESCALERA informed Plaintiff that they had accessed a record of his arrest from September 27, 2013 - which should have been sealed as of March 27, 2014 and inaccessible to them - and that Plaintiff was a “recidivist.”

35. JOHN DOE #1 and ESCALERA handcuffed Plaintiff.
36. JOHN DOE #1 and ESCALERA then placed Plaintiff into a holding cell.
37. Plaintiff was fingerprinted and photographed at the police precinct.
38. Defendant POLICE OFFICER ROCA logged Plaintiff’s property.
39. Plaintiff was never told why he had been arrested while at the precinct.
40. Defendant Lieutenant GULINELLO is listed as the “supervisor approving” on the police paperwork generated in connection with Plaintiff’s arrest.
41. After approximately three or four hours in the holding cell, Plaintiff was brought to Manhattan Central Booking.
42. At Manhattan Central Booking Plaintiff was fingerprinted and photographed again.
43. Plaintiff was held at Manhattan Central Booking until approximately 11:30 p.m., when he was arraigned and released.
44. Plaintiff was falsely charged with Occupying Multiple Seats on a Transit Facility Subway or Bus.
45. The Criminal Court Complaint was signed by Officer ESCALERA that was lodged against Plaintiff stated as follows:

I observed the defendant on a southbound ‘R’ train lying outstretched sleeping across multiple seats. I further observed a large plastic, which belonged to the defendant, on a seat next to the defendant and an additional large plastic bag, belonging to the defendant, on the floor by the defendant’s seat. I further observed that there were more than 10 passengers on the train and at least 2 passengers were standing.

46. These allegations are lies.

47. Plaintiff was on an 'N' train, not an 'R' train.

48. Plaintiff was seated, not lying outstretched.

49. Plaintiff's small bag was beside him, but was not taking up the seat beside him on the two-seat unit in which Plaintiff was seated, and anyone could have sat there without difficulty.

50. It would have been physically impossible for Plaintiff to have been "lying outstretched" in the two-seat unit in which Plaintiff was seated.

51. There were numerous empty seats on the train.

52. Plaintiff accepted an Adjournment in Contemplation of Dismissal ("ACD"), and the charge of Occupying Multiple Seats on a Transit Facility Subway or Bus has been dismissed in its entirety.

53. Plaintiff made numerous trips back to the precinct to try to get his property back, which had been taken from him when he was arrested.

54. Plaintiff was told that he needed to speak with POLICE OFFICER ROCA to get his property back.

55. When Plaintiff got his bag back a number of items of Plaintiff's property - most importantly a handwritten play that Plaintiff had authored, entitled "The Scythe of Sophocles" (which contained subject matter that was critical of police officers), and of which there were no copies - were missing.

56. On one of the occasions when Plaintiff went back to the precinct to attempt to get his missing property back Defendant POLICE OFFICER NUNEZ denied that anyone took Plaintiff's property and became angry at Plaintiff.

57. POLICE OFFICER NUNEZ, without cause or justification, took out his handcuffs and aggressively approached Plaintiff and threatened to handcuff and arrest Plaintiff.

58. POLICE OFFICER NUNEZ told Plaintiff to leave the precinct or he would be arrested, so Plaintiff left the precinct.

59. When Plaintiff finally was able to speak with POLICE OFFICER ROCA about the missing property, he also became aggressive, and said, in sum and substance, “why would I steal some papers.”
